Aavenir Contractflow

ESSENTIALS EDITION

AI-Powered Contract Repository on ServiceNow

Store, extract, retrieve, and monitor contracts effortlessly

Start your Contract Management Journey Today!

Aavenir Contractflow Essentials edition provides businesses a simple yet effective way to start their contract management maturity journey. Contractflow Essentials is primarily an AI-powered contract repository. It offers a secure, centralized contract storage and retrieval repository that provides AI-enabled extraction of key metadata and clauses, helping users quickly identify important information. Businesses can start their journey with the Contractflow Essentials edition and seamlessly progress to Aavenir Contractflow Professional for more comprehensive contract authoring and lifecycle management capabilities.

The robust AI extraction capabilities allow users to extract terms and clauses out-of-the-box, including additional terms and clauses if needed. This flexibility is achieved with minimal training and configuration, ensuring seamless adaptability to specific contract types and industry requirements. Combined with intuitive reports, it enables businesses to easily track activity and gain actionable insights.

With a user-friendly interface and reliable customer support, the Aavenir Contractflow Essentials edition is simple to use and vital for compliant, organized, and efficient organizations.

What Does Contractflow Essentials Do

- Empowers teams to drive efficiency and accelerate information retrieval from contracts

What's Holding You Back?

- Inability to track contracts and negotiated clauses
- Struggling to locate contracts and their corresponding clauses, which are often scattered across various storage systems and email inboxes
- Failure to track contract renewals and expirations leads to missed opportunities and potential risks for the organization
- High maintenance overheads and lack of data accuracy due to traditional integrations with multiple systems

ServiceNow and Aavenir, Together

- No-brainer installation from the ServiceNow Store
- Single sign-on across Aavenir and other ServiceNow Enterprise applications
- Consistent and simplified administration like any other ServiceNow application
- Extensive workflow and application configuration flexibility
- Robust data security and compliance with regional and global standards
- Robust interconnectivity between ServiceNow and Aavenir applications without any integrations
- Simplified integrations with SAP, Salesforce, Oracle, and other systems with purpose-built connectors

How It Works

Key Value Drivers

Built on the industry leading ServiceNow platform, Aavenir Contractflow Essentials Edition is a unique SaaS solution that offers ease of use, streamlined administration, rapid deployment, and unparalleled flexibility catering to all your contract repository needs.

Centralized Storage

Seamless legacy contract migration and centralized storage in the AI-powered repository for enhanced management, accessibility, and security of contracts, documents, and attachments.

Secure Role-Based Access

Role-based access controls ensure secure and controlled access to contracts and related information based on user roles and responsibilities.

Discovery

Advanced AI technology extracts key terms and clauses while migrating legacy contracts. Access over 40+ metadata and 60+ clauses from the contract repository.

Reminders & Notifications

Effortless tracking, monitoring and management of contract renewals and expiration dates, with timely reminders and notifications for important contract events and deadlines

Search and Retrieval

Efficient search, retrieval, and navigation of specific contract information through document content search. Visual contract hierarchy representation for enhanced comprehension.

Integration Capabilities

No code, low code integration with ServiceNow applications (Source-to-Pay operations, LSD, ITSM, GRC) for enhanced collaboration, and flexible integration with external systems (Salesforce, MS Dynamics, NetSuite) for seamless data exchange.

AI-Powered Smart Search

Natural language-enabled smart contract search for precise and relevant results, and proximity search to identify contract clauses or terms in close proximity for contextual understanding.

Dashboards and Metrics

Ready-to-use contract reports that provide actionable insights and visibility into contract status, renewal, and expiration events.
